ART NOUVEAU

It can be said that among humanity's most profound legacies, art stands as the quietest yet most persistent form of resistance. Not through force, but through form. Like a current beneath still waters, it shapes without spectacle, carving meaning where none is obvious. Art is the act of translating what cannot be spoken. It transcends reason without discarding it, bridging the rational and the intuitive, the personal and the universal. It offers no answers, only the courage to see differently.

Art Nouveau is an homage to that spirit.

This sub-event opens a space where convention is not discarded but reimagined, where performance is not display, but dialogue. Through movement, medium, and metaphor, participants will confront the familiar with new eyes. Not to escape reality, but to recast it. Whether through a stroke that disturbs silence, a dish that narrates heritage, a performance that carries memory, or a film that reframes truth, Art Nouveau is an invitation to construct something that resists the forgettable.

For what is creation, if not the most deliberate way of remembering we were here?

ART NOUVEAU

1.ART (5 sub-categories)

FAN-TASY

Don't let your love for your favourite piece of media, book, or franchise stay hidden. Whether on traditional or on a screen, delegates will show their dedication to their fandom by creating a rendition of their favourite character in a challenging and contrasting theme that will be revealed on campus.

Street sm-art

The streets are calling, and so is your inner artist. Armed with a prompt and a life-sized canvas, delegates will create bold graffiti-inspired pieces that demand attention. Paint loud, think bigger, and leave behind something impossible to ignore.

Salvage

Art was never meant to stay inside the frame. Whether it stands, hangs, stacks, or somehow defies gravity altogether, this category celebrates the world of 3D creation. From sculptures and mixed-media works to digital renders that blur reality itself, delegates are invited to build something that refuses to be overlooked.

Phantasmagoria

Reality is really overrated. Delegates will be given a carefully arranged still life and a random genre, then challenged to transform the ordinary into the extraordinary. A fruit bowl may become a noir crime scene, a teapot a surrealist dream, or a stack of books evidence from the end of the world. Same objects, entirely different reality.

Picasso's detective

A Triathlon classic where art meets investigation. Delegates must decipher clues, hunt down hidden elements, and bring their discoveries to life through sketching. Equal parts detective work and artistic skill, this challenge rewards both a sharp eye and a steady hand.

ART NOUVEAU

2.MEDIA (3 sub-categories)

Nolan's flair

You like creating more than watching, then this category is for you. Make a 3-7 minute short film before the event, then tackle a video-editing challenge on campus. Lights, camera, chaos.

Picture the plot

Get handed a film plot, then hunt the campus for the perfect people, props, and accidental cinematography. Turn your photos into a movie poster that could maybe, possibly, rival Hollywood.

Film in the moment

If we're all just a collection of experiences and memories, then Triathlon 8.0 deserves a place in yours. Capture every moment—from the prep to the final celebrations and vlog your journey. Some memories simply hit different when they're on camera.

3. DRAMA (3 sub-categories)

Twist stage

Delegates will reinterpret a well-known film by adding their own creative twist. In the second round, they will be given a song, which must be incorporated into a performance in a way that meaningfully contributes to the storyline and overall presentation.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE

Delegates will perform a monologue on a topic of their choice, showcasing originality, expression, and stage presence through an individual performance.

ART NOUVEAU

The Hot Seat Act

Delegates will improvise performances using assigned situations, props, and personality traits, testing their spontaneity, creativity, and ability to adapt on the spot.

4. MUSIC (2 sub-categories)

Vocals

Think you can leave the audience in awe? This category is your stage. Delegates must perform a song in Urdu or any other national language, bringing emotion, power, and presence to their vocals. This category challenges delegates to step beyond their usual shower concerts and bring their vocals to the stage. With a song of their choice in English, it's their moment to shine.

Instrumentals

Not a singer? No problem. If you've got the skills to make an instrument speak, this is your chance to showcase your talent. Whether you play Eastern or Western music, let the stage be your soundtrack.

5. ENGLISH LITERATURE

Inked Oracles

Step into the realm of prophecy, where words weave the future and symbols unlock destiny. Entrants will craft poetic prophecies or visionary narratives, rich with mystical themes and cryptic foresight. Whether revealing a hidden fate, foretelling an untold story, or unraveling the mysteries of time itself, your words will echo like whispers from another world. Let your imagination guide you. Will your prophecy be a blessing, a warning, or a puzzle waiting to be solved?

ART NOUVEAU

◆ افسانہ ری مکس

6. URDU LITERATURE

Handed a classic Urdu short story, delegates will have the creative challenge of rewriting its ending or retelling it from the perspective of a secondary character. A fresh take on timeless tales because every story has more than one side.

7. DANCE

Actions speak louder than words. Delegates will be given a word or phrase and must transform it into a performance that conveys its essence through movement.

8. COOKING

Cooking is more than just mixing ingredients. It's a test of knowledge, skill, and instinct. From mastering techniques to balancing flavours and presenting a dish, every choice matters. This category challenges you to think on your feet, experiment with confidence, and turn simple ingredients into something extraordinary.

BIZZFEST

Progress has never been powered by certainty but by movement. Trade, risk, reinvention, these are the quiet forces that have shaped empires more enduringly than war or politics. Economies are the nervous systems of civilization, delicate yet decisive, responding not just to numbers, but to nerve. The entrepreneur is not merely a builder, they are a strategist in a game without a rulebook, reading volatility like weather. The economist, a quiet architect of recovery, draws blueprints for nations in crisis. Both turn theory into survival.

Triathlon invites you to enter this arena.

Across nine categories, you'll step into the machinery of markets. One moment you may be reviving a dying enterprise, the next, navigating moral fault lines in pursuit of profit. You will be tested not on what you know, but on how you think under pressure.

This is where intellect meets instinct, where analysis becomes action, and where futures begin.

BIZZFEST

1. GAMBLER'S FALLACY (COMPULSORY CATEGORY)

Launching a business sounds exciting until the risks show up. Navigate the chaos of building one from scratch, allocate your resources wisely, and turn a risky idea into something that actually works. The market is unpredictable. Your strategy shouldn't be.

2. BILLIONAIRE'S TOKEN (COMPULSORY CATEGORY)

Welcome to the high stakes world of finance, where one wrong move can flip the table. Step into an investor's shoes, manage a portfolio across currencies, stocks, and commodities, and make the kind of calls that either build empires or burn them. Choose wisely.

3. SHERLOCK'S SYMPOSIUM

The game is afoot. Put on your strategist hat, dig into complex crime scenarios, and crack cases that demand logic, deduction, and nerves of steel. Part analyst, part detective, all pressure. Can you uncover the truth before the clock runs out?

4. CLUEMINATI

A race against time, a series of wild challenges, and zero room to overthink. Create original art on the spot, impress the judges, and keep up with the chaos. Fast, creative, and completely unpredictable. Exactly how it should be.

5. THE SILICON SYNDICATE

AI is not the future anymore, it is the present. Build solutions powered by machine learning, smart algorithms, and data analytics to actually move the needle. The corporate world is changing fast. The question is whether your strategy can keep up.

BIZZFEST

6. GUERRILLA MARKETING

Forget traditional ads. This is about bold, scrappy, and impossibly creative campaigns that stop people in their tracks. Viral moments, unexpected stunts, disruptive brand moves, your job is to make noise without a massive budget. Think fast, pitch hard, leave a mark.

7. CLICK CART CONQUER

E-commerce is ruthless, and this category puts you right in the middle of it. Design and scale an online business, handle supply chain chaos, navigate shifting consumer behavior, and keep the numbers healthy. In the digital marketplace, only the most agile survive.

ENOVA

Science has long been humanity's most disciplined attempt at understanding the unknown. It takes the incomprehensible and breaks it down not to simplify it, but to reveal the systems that hold it together. From the collapse of stars to the mapping of memory, science allows us to examine the universe not as distant spectators, but as participants capable of decoding its laws. Its pursuit has shaped history, driven innovation, and challenged how we see ourselves in the grand order of things. Through science, we do not just gather knowledge, we gain perspective. We learn to question the ordinary, to find logic in complexity, and to seek meaning where others might see mystery.

It is this spirit that Team Triathlon aims to capture through Enova, a sub-event built to challenge, inspire, and expand the boundaries of thought.

With nine diverse categories, Enova invites participants to engage with the sciences in all their forms. Whether you gravitate toward psychology, archaeology, biomedical research, or forensic investigation, there is space here to explore, experiment, and excel. Each category is designed to not only test your knowledge, but to ignite the kind of curiosity that moves the world forward.

ENOVA

1. CURIE-OSITY (COMPULSORY CATEGORY)

A test of broad scientific knowledge covering fundamental principles across physics, chemistry, biology, and applied sciences. This category is compulsory for all participants, ensuring a strong foundation in general sciences.

2. MIND-MATRIX

Delve into the complexities of human behavior, cognitive processes, and psychological theories. This category challenges participants with case studies, mental puzzles, and scenario-based problem-solving.

3. DETECTIVE'S GAMBIT

A thrilling category where participants apply forensic science, logical reasoning, and investigative techniques to solve crime-based scenarios. This tests analytical skills, attention to detail, and deductive reasoning.

4. ARCHIMEDES' APEX

A battle of numbers, logic, and abstract reasoning. Participants will engage in mathematical problem-solving, puzzles, and real-world applications of mathematical concepts.

5. ASTROMANIA

Explore the wonders of the cosmos through astrophysics, celestial navigation, space exploration, and astrological interpretations. This category tests knowledge of the universe, planetary movements, and the science behind space phenomena.

6. VITALIS

A deep dive into human anatomy, genetics, microbiology, and ecology. Participants will tackle questions on biological processes, medical sciences, and innovations in biotechnology.

ENOVA

7. MECHANICS PRIME

Explore the principles of engineering through the design, analysis, and construction of systems, and structures that shape both the modern and ancient world.

This category tests understanding of mechanics, materials, energy, and problem-solving methods used to turn scientific ideas into practical applications.

8. NEXTGEN RESEARCH DUEL

A test of scientific inquiry and innovation. Participants will critically evaluate research papers, propose new hypotheses, and present innovative solutions to contemporary scientific challenges.

9. THE TURING SANCTUM

A dive into the digital world, covering artificial intelligence, coding, cybersecurity, and emerging technologies. Participants will solve programming challenges, analyze real-world tech scenarios, and debate the ethical implications of AI and automation.

10. THE RISE OF THE MACHINES

An exploration of robotics, machine learning, and intelligent systems, combining coding, automation, and hands-on engineering. Participants will design and build projects using Arduino, sensors, and robotic components while developing innovative solutions to real-world challenges through technology and creativity.
