

BILLIONAIRE'S TOKEN: STUDY GUIDE

An intense two-round investment category testing real-time stock trading, market analysis, and index fund design.

Round 1: Trading Simulation

- Time: 90 minutes (5 trading cycles, 10 minutes each).
- Team Cap: 2 delegates per team.
- Starting Cash: $5,000 virtual capital.
- Format: Trade 7 company stocks across 5 cycles of 10 minutes each. A live market news catalyst breaks at the start of every cycle. All buy/sell orders must be logged in your Trade Log Ledger before time expires. Each team is required to bring calculators and keep track of investments and cash available. Unallocated cash earns 0% return.
- Advancement: Top 6 teams with the highest returns advance.
- Judging: Evaluated 100% on final Portfolio Value and Net ROI.

Round 2: Index Fund Pitch

- Time: 60 minutes prep | 10-minute pitch | 10-minute Q&A
- Team Cap: 3 members per team.
- Format: Build a custom Index Fund using performance trends and price data from Round 1, then pitch your fund strategy to the panel as a presentation.
- Judging: Evaluated on fund weighting logic, data-driven strategy, presentation and Q&A defense.

Note:

- The proceedings of each round may be altered at the sole discretion of the category head.
- Both rounds hold an equal weightage.
- Each team must bring along a calculator. Electronic devices are prohibited.
